Dennis P.M. Hughes, through Neal Davis, files this unopposed motion to continue all dates for at least 30 days from the current schedule, pending this Court's ruling on his motion to withdraw his plea, showing specifically:

1. Hughes is charged with several counts involving child pornography.
2. He has pled guilty.
3. He has filed a motion to withdraw his plea, which is pending.
4. Since this motion is pending, he is moving to continue all dates, including for PSR objections and sentencing. His PSR objections are due next week.
5. Hughes respectfully requests continuing all dates for at least 30 days from the current set dates, given this Court's pending ruling (undersigned also has a two week vacation at the end of July to the beginning of August 2016, with a letter on file with the Harris County District Clerk).

6. Undersigned has contacted the prosecution, and they are unopposed to this continuance.
